DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Wakefield, II (5,961,561), Moore (6,370,454) or Moore et al (4,697,243).

Prior Art Made of Record

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Katagishi et al and Fish are listed in the international search report, but are not seen to be applicable datewise.

Arnold is listed in the international search report, but are not seen to be relevant

Hart et al (WO 00/02371) is the closest foreign art.

Sawyers "Troubleshooting techs turn to the Net" is the closest non-patent literature.
